Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 3, 18, and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by either McGee et al (5,891,136) or Stern et al (6,041,260). Each of the references clearly discloses the basic apparatus including a tubular element (catheter), conductive balloon in fluid communication with a lumen, and a conductive element effecting electrical connection to the balloon. In Figures 20+ of McGee et al, plural conductive and insulation portions are disclosed. Similarly, Stern et al disclose such a feature in Figure 4a. Applicant's intended use of the apparatus fails to patentably define over the devices disclosed by these references, particularly since the balloons are inherently capable of to expand to various sizes.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 13, 14, and 26 are allowed.

Claims 4, 6, and 21 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
